Ful-O-Pep's Show Poultry Ambassador

Keith Staggs, US Director of Sales for United Animal Health, Inc., has an extensive background within the poultry industry. Being born and raised in Humble, TX, he is the product of Texas 4-H and FFA programs and raising market poultry for show.

Keith graduated from Texas

A & M University with a Bachelor of Science in Poultry Science and has been instrumental in the poultry industry and allied sector for over 30 years. His accolades include serving on the scholarship committee for the Poultry Science Department at Texas A & M University and was appointed by the Governor of Texas to serve as the Commissioner of the Texas Animal Health Commission from 2017-2024. Keith also served as President of the Texas Poultry Federation, Texas Broiler Council and the Texas Allied Poultry Association. He is currently an active member of the Texas Poultry Federation, National Chicken Council and National Turkey Federation. Keith has enjoyed judging numerous shows across the State of Texas and the country throughout his career.

Keith resides in College Station, TX with his wife Sheri of 32 years and their four children. Keith enjoys spending time with his family, most importantly, his grandchildren, hunting, fishing, golfing, and helping exhibitors throughout the country with their poultry projects as well as providing vital nutritional information for feeding programs that excel poultry growth and success within the industry.

When asked about his career in the poultry industry, Keith will say; "I am blessed to be a part of an industry that is responsible for feeding an affordable, healthy and sustainable protein for the global population".
